

John J. Albanese, VP, Corporate Security & Investigations

John was appointed to his current role September 2015. He previously held the position of SIU Manager at USAA for a period of three years, leading a team of field investigators in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic states. Prior to that, John served 20 years with the Connecticut State Police in a variety of roles- Patrol Trooper, Detective, Supervisor, Executive Officer, and Commanding Officer. He retired in 2012 as the Commanding Officer of Troop C, Tolland.

John received an MBA from the University of Connecticut and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from the University of New Haven. John attained the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) designation from ACFE, the Certified Protection Professional (CPP) designation from ASIS, and the Fraud Claim Law Specialist (FCLS) designation from AEI.

He also serves on the ASIS Investigations Council and ASIS Critical Infrastructure Working Group. John is a member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, ASIS International, the International Association of Financial Crime Investigators, and Infragard.